

WITSA Membership Type and Description

WITSA has two types of Membership.

Full Membership – Full membership status offers association members the opportunity to be nominated to sit on the WITSA Board of Directors; Vote, hold key positions on the Board and join a variety of committees. Full members are also eligible to host WITSA’s premier World Congress on Information Technology (WCIT). These members are also provide access for their members to participate in all other WITSA programs to include WITSA B2B Portal, allowing them access to hundreds of potential business prospects and partners. Only one Association per country can join WITSA as a full member, with all its benefits and privileges.

Full members are required to pay annual dues in order to qualify as a WITSA member in good standing.

Associate Membership – Associate Membership receive WITSA newsletter and other WITSA information to keep them informed about WITSA’s activities. Associate members are not eligible to be nominated to sit on WITSA’s Board of Directors or eligible to vote on WITSA matters.

Associate members are not required to pay annual dues.

Note-WITSA dues are perhaps the least expensive of any other reputable association, therefore joining WITSA as a full member is highly recommended, not only for an association, but for the associations’ members.
