Any dispute, controversy or claim arising in connection with this Agreement or the breach thereof ("Dispute") should at first instance be settled by negotiations between the Parties or their representatives. Prior to referring any matter to arbitration, the Parties shall refer the Dispute to the respective representatives nominated or appointed by the Parties for consideration. If their representatives are unable to resolve the Dispute within thirty (30) calendar days after the Dispute being referred to them, any of the Parties in the Dispute may refer the matter to binding arbitration by the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") in accordance with its Commercial Arbitration Rules; and judgment on the award rendered by the arbitrator shall be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. The number of arbitrators shall be one. The place of arbitration shall be in Arlington County, Virginia. The working language for any such arbitration shall be English. the decision of the arbitrator, the Parties hereto shall continue with their respective responsibilities under this Agreement. The costs of the arbitration proceedings shall be borne in equal portion by the Parties unless the arbitrator determines otherwise. The decision and award of the arbitrator shall, in the absence of clerical or manifest error, be final and binding on the Parties hereto. Nothing in this Clause will prevent a Party from seeking urgent equitable relief before an appropriate court.

9.10 Entire Agreement. This Agreement and all schedules, addenda and attachments hereto constitute the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter stated herein as of the Effective Date and may only be modified by an instrument in writing signed by both parties. This Agreement cancels and supersedes any and all prior and contemporaneous proposals (oral or written), understandings, representations, conditions, warranties, covenants and other communications between the parties, which relate to the subject matter of this Agreement, including the Host Bid.

9.11 No Waiver. No failure or delay of any of the parties herein in exercising any right or power given to it under this Agreement shall operate as a waiver thereof. In the event of any action to enforce an obligation under this Agreement, the losing party shall pay all reasonable costs and attorneys' fees, in addition to any damages.

9.14 Indemnification.

(a) Mutual Indemnification. WITSA and the Host Organization hereby agree to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless (the Party providing indemnification is referred to as the “Indemnifying Party”) each other (the Party receiving indemnification is referred to as the “Indemnified Party”) and their respective affiliates, directors, officers, employees, managing directors, principals, shareholders, agents, controlling persons, attorneys, auditors and accountants, from and against any and all losses, claims, damages and liabilities (collectively, “Losses”), joint or several, to which such Indemnified Party may become subject under any applicable law or suit related to or arising out of the matters described in this Agreement by reason of the Indemnifying Party’s conduct or breach or default of any of the terms and conditions of this Agreement, and the Indemnifying Party will reimburse the Indemnified Party for all fees and expenses (including reasonable counsel fees and expenses) as they are incurred in connection with the investigation of, preparation for, and defense of any pending or threatened claim or any action or proceeding arising there from, whether or not the Indemnified Party is a party, and the prosecution and defense of any counter claims, cross claims and third party claims arising there from or related thereto. The Indemnifying Party shall defend the Indemnified Party with counsel who shall be selected by Indemnified Party and approved by the Indemnifying Party in its reasonable discretion, and the Indemnifying Party shall fund such retainers and payments as required by such counsel. The Indemnifying Party will not be liable under the foregoing indemnification provision in respect of any loss, claim, damage or liability to the extent that a court of competent jurisdiction shall have determined by a final judgment that such loss, claim, damage or liability resulted from the Indemnified Party’s negligence or willful misconduct. The foregoing indemnification provisions are in addition to, and not in derogation of, any statutory, equitable or common-law remedy any Party may have for breach of covenant or agreement.

(b) Notice of Third Party Actions. An Indemnified Party shall give written notification to the Indemnifying Party of the commencement of any suit, claim, action or proceeding by a person or entity other than a Party to this Agreement or any affiliate of any such Party for which indemnification may be sought (a “Third Party Action”). Such notification shall be given within twenty (20) days after receipt by the Indemnified Party of notice of such Third Party Action, and shall describe in reasonable detail (to the extent known by the Indemnified Party) the facts constituting the basis for such Third Party Action and the amount of the claimed Losses; provided, however, that no delay or failure on the part of the Indemnified Party in so notifying the Indemnifying Party shall deprive the Indemnified Party of its rights to indemnification hereunder except to the extent of any damage or liability caused by or arising out of such delay or failure.

9.15 Limitation of Liability. Except with respect to Host Organization’s payment obligations to WITSA under Section 4, and notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the cumulative, maximum amount of liability that WITSA and Host Organization shall have to the other for defaults or breaches of representations or covenants under this Agreement or on whatever legal grounds shall not exceed the total sum of $200,000 (USD), unless the damages suffered by one of the parties are the result of intentional acts or intentional omissions, gross negligence, or willful misconduct by the other party. Any liability for WITSA and/or the Host Organization for consequential damages, consequential loss, lost profits, lost savings, loss of goodwill, loss of reputation, damage through business interruptions, damage ensuing from members of WITSA and/or and mutilation or loss of data shall be excluded.
